

DM#6 – Teaching Dispositions - Teacher candidate:

- Fosters and demonstrates caring and professional relationships with students that focuses on acceptance and attention to their educational needs.
- Participates as part of a learning community, sharing responsibility for each student’s learning, and giving and receiving feedback.
- Engages in professional learning to enhance knowledge and skills and works collaboratively to advance professional practice.
- Demonstrates the highest standard of legal, moral, and ethical conduct required by law and the educational profession.

		1	2	3	4
1	Demonstrates a professional disposition (e.g., caring, demeanor, appearance, prepared, promptness, etc.).				4
2	Shows respect for colleagues, supervisor, and mentor teachers.				4
3	Demonstrates legal, moral, ethical conduct, and acts as a role model.				4
4	Communicates in ways that demonstrates respect and caring for all students regardless of age, gender, ethnicity, culture, learning and language differences.				4
5	Displays enthusiasm and exhibits confidence in teaching.				4
6	Demonstrates ability to foster relationships with families, and the community at large to support student success.				4
7	Determines necessary changes based on the educational needs of students, conceives solutions to unforeseen problems, and implements interventions in order to maintain an effective classroom.				4
8	Participates as part of a learning community, sharing responsibility for each student’s learning, and giving and receiving feedback.				4
Teaching Dispositions Sub-Score					32

Comments:

This area is another one of my strengths. I always develop caring, yet professional relationships with my students that focuses on mutual trust, respect, and acceptance.